Virgo new Moon

f

The Virgo New Moon heralds seasonal change, but it's not just the seasons that are changing. A host of other changes are on the cards this month.

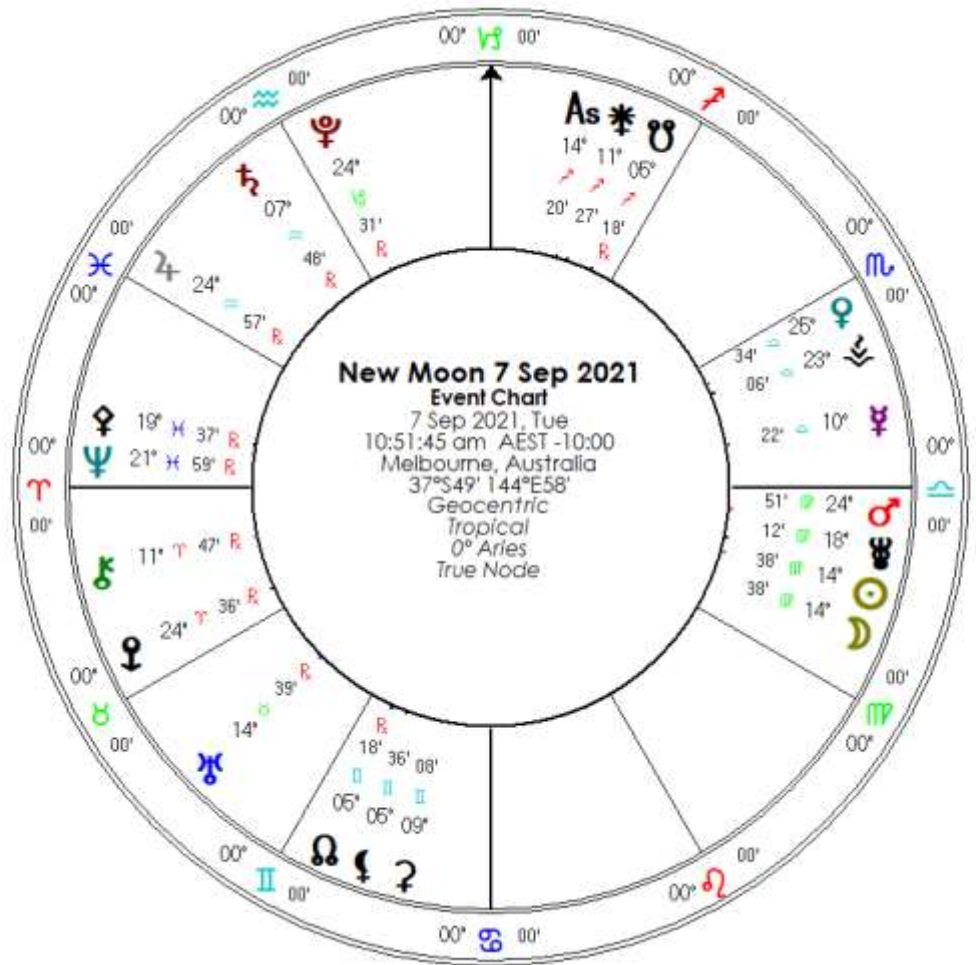

This New Moon is only one minute of arc away from an exact trine to Uranus.

This is a hopeful sign of a positive future outlook, and given the global gloom of late, we could really do with some positivity right now.

This trine is ultra creative too. To make the most of this exciting aspect, harness and ground your creative ideas into something tangible. Use this Virgo New Moon to initiate a creative project that has a practical and useful application.

Even when in lockdown, there are lots of opportunities to use this aspect productively.

Learn a new skill online, take up a new creative craft or hobby, write your life story, start a blog, learn a new language, learn to play bridge, research your family tree, there are hundreds of ideas to consider. Uranus is all about the future. Think long term and which skills you want to develop.

Virgo is also associated with health and healing and with Mercury opposing Chiron this is an opportune time to focus on personal wellbeing, be it mind or body.

Charts in the News Gladys Berejiklian (noon chart)

NSW Premier Gladys Berejiklian was born on 22 September 1970 in Manly NSW. No birth time is known.

Gladys has a stellium of planets in Virgo, including a powerful Sun-Pluto conjunction. She will turn 51 this month which means she is having her Chiron Return. Chiron will station direct in December this year right on her natal Chiron. This transit is activating a yod in her chart. Chiron is the apex of this yod involving Venus and Mars.

It's clear that the NSW government has not managed the Delta outbreak at all well in contrast to most other states in Australia. There is no sign that the crisis in NSW will end anytime soon.

The Chiron Return is when women experience menopause, so apart from the daily stress of the current NSW outbreak, she is also under stress concerning her past relationship with Daryl Maguire, plus she is going through menopause. It won't surprise me if she resigns due to stress or health concerns before the end of the year.

Pisces Full I Moon

This is a very mobile and animated Full Moon. Mercury squares Pluto at the same time it trines Jupiter within one minute of arc. Mercury also opposes Eris.

With so many aspects involving Mercury, there are a lot of things to consider before we make new commitments. Of course making plans in the middle of a global pandemic and ongoing lockdowns that can happen at any time, has an extra degree of difficulty.

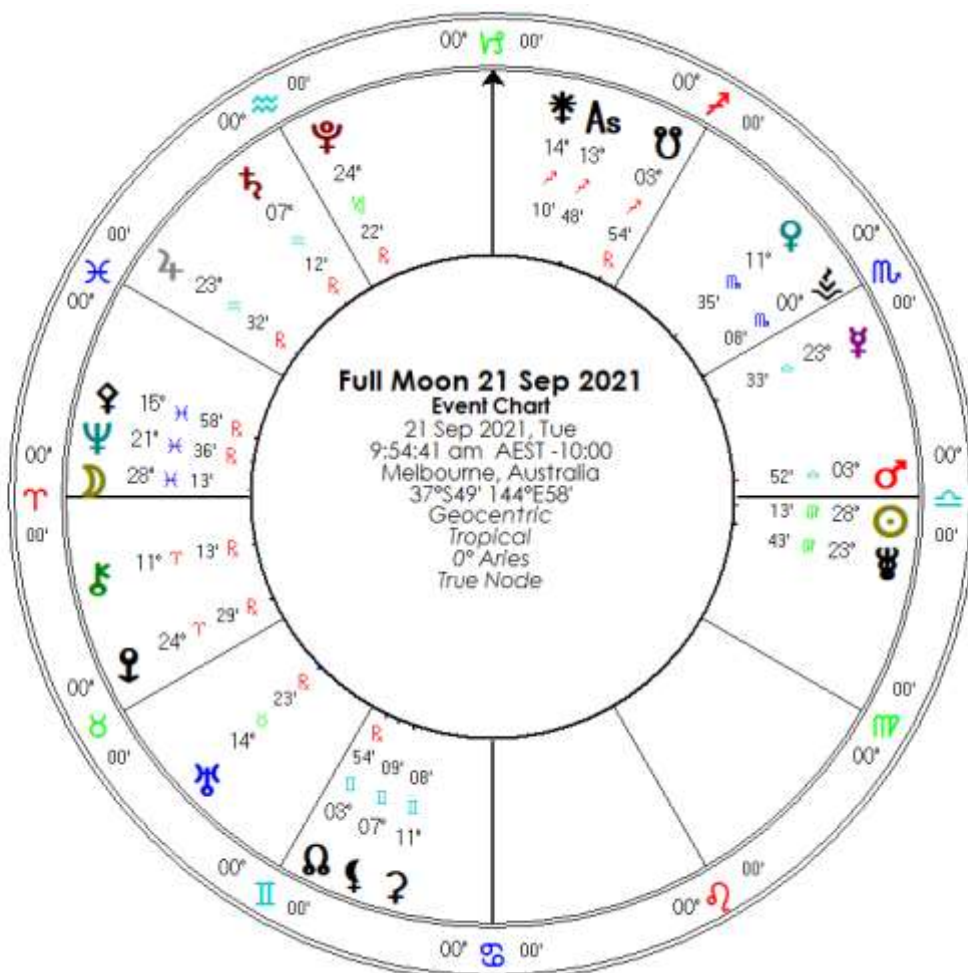

skills. This reinforces opportunities for learning that were symbolised at the recent New Moon. Pisces influences are full of magic imagination and creativity. Art, and music are positive ways we can use this time. Listen to your dreams and allow them to guide you.

Decisions are often made at the Solstice and this Full Moon is just a couple of days before the new season officially commences.

The trine between Mercury and Jupiter is especially tight. This is a positive aspect for learning new

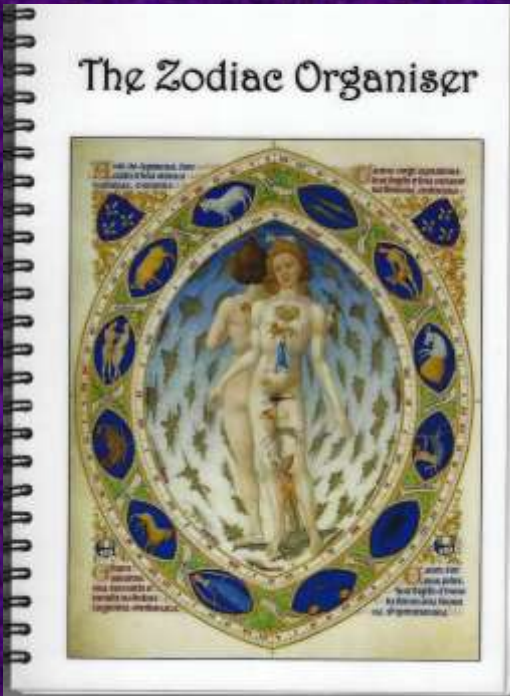

The difficulties of the pandemic are still unfolding. What have we learned? What has this trial taught us? Hopefully we will have become more resilient, more self disciplined, more responsible and more health conscious.

Mercury represents our capacity to learn and communicate. What have we learned and what messages are we communicating?

equinox

This Equinox happens just a day or two after the Full Moon, so many of the same aspects are in play. Mercury is still highlighted by its tightening square to Pluto and an exact opposition to goddess of strife Eris, with the Moon now also involved.

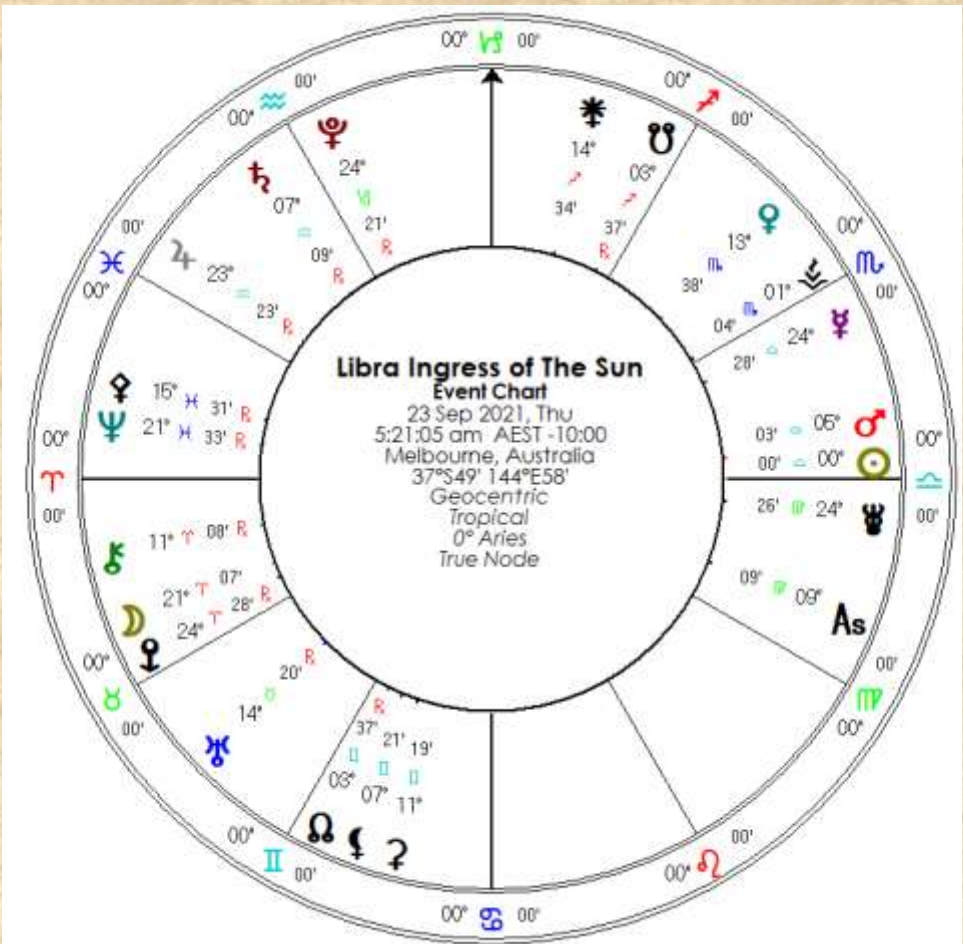

This potent Cardinal T-square will influence the coming three months through to the December Solstice. Exactly how this plays out remains to be seen, but it suggests a powerful war of words. Communication intensifies under the influence of this intense T-Square. Located in cardinal signs, this foreshadows leadership issues and emotive communication, especially concerning political decision making. Matters are likely to come to a head.

Just about all the planets are retrograde at this Equinox, except Mercury, Venus and Mars and a couple of asteroids. So even though we are focused on our personal needs, global issues continue to challenge us.

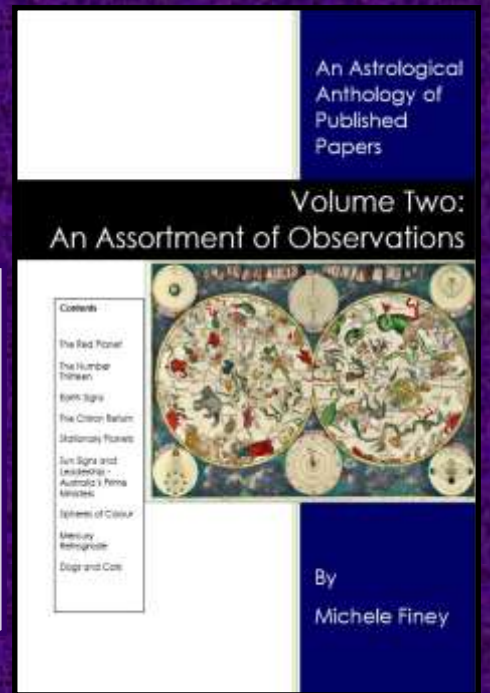

Politically, this Equinox is a time to make adjustments to settings and policies. Leaders' roles may change as the political debate intensifies.

Libra is all about fairness, justice and balance, but finding middle ground is anything but simple. Sometimes Libra can be indecisive, but with Venus opposing Uranus, Mars conjunct the Sun and this cardinal T-square in play, passionate emotions will dictate the narrative over coming months.

These two volumes feature years of my research and published articles. Available for Download.
