PISCES full Moon

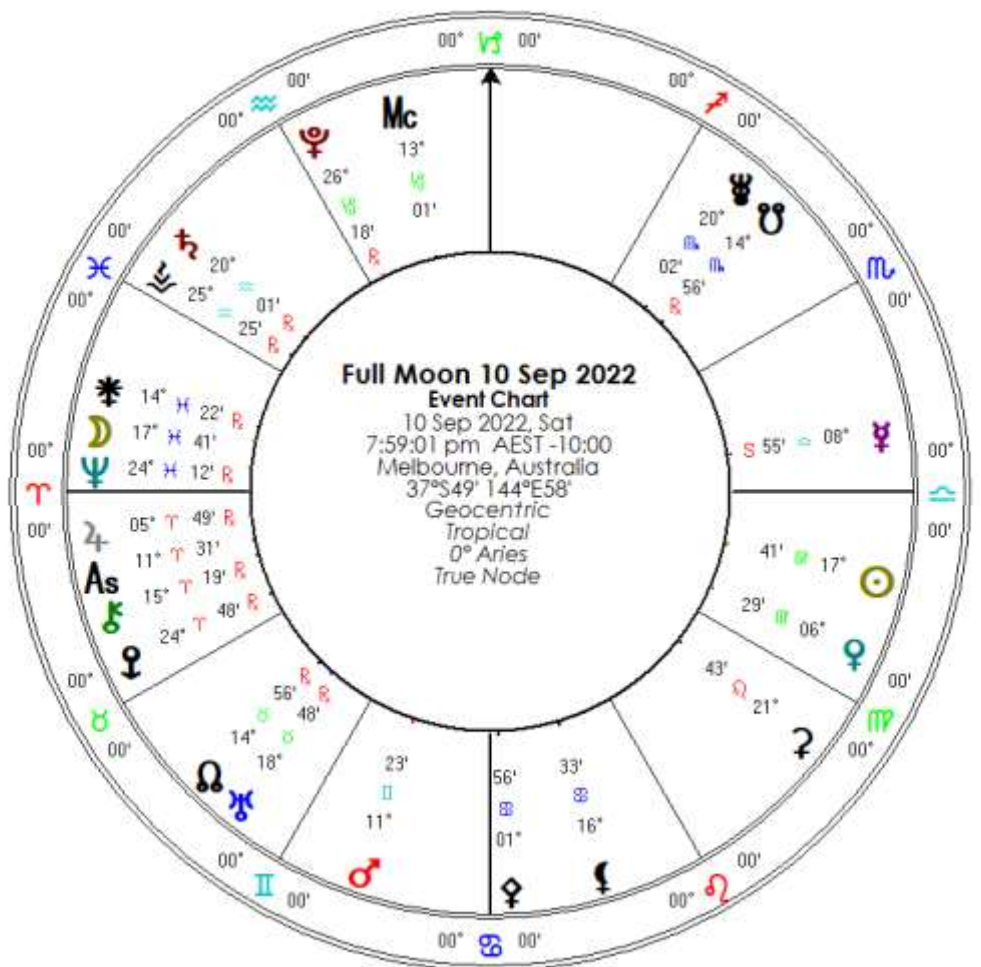

This Full Moon is notable because Mercury is stationing and turning retrograde. Mercury is exactly stationary just six hours before this Full Moon.

Venus in Virgo and Mercury in Libra are in mutual reception, asking us to consider a different approach to our normal way of doing things. I have often thought that mutual receptions create a catch-22 situation, where each planet has to refer back to the other, creating a kind of circuit of energy. Planets in mutual reception have to work as a team. This is not easy to do, especially now as they are in signs that are next door to one another.

Signs that are adjacent to one another, in this case Virgo and Libra, can learn a lot from one another. Libra can learn to look within for answers and Virgo can learn a lot from Libra about relationships.

This Pisces Full Moon is within orb of mysterious Neptune, and makes an exciting sextile to Uranus, with the Sun in a trine with Uranus. Some revelations and insights are likely now, though we may have trouble making sense of things. Meanwhile, the Saturn-Uranus square continues to tighten, so there will be push back from those who want to keep the status quo, while those who are thinking about the future will continue to push the envelope of change to establish a new set of rules.

This 32-page astrology calendar is suitable for those who are new to astrology, students of astrology and the professional astrologer.

It includes an introductory section on astrology basics that explains the meaning of planets and signs. An easy reference guide, it examines prevailing astrological conditions and suggests ways to take advantage of opportunities as they arise. For professional astrologers this calendar replaces the need to constantly refer to your ephemeris. It provides easy access to relevant astrological data for general daily use. It also includes planetary information that is not found in ephemerides, such as lunar perigees, Supermoons, key positions of Venus and more.

CHARTS IN THE NEWS

Elvis Presley & Col. Tom Parker

The recent movie release Elvis, focuses on the toxic relationship between Elvis Presley and his manager Tom Parker.

Elvis was born with stationary Uranus in his 5th house in dynamic Aries, amplifying his innovative and creative potential. Uranus has a multi-titude of aspects elevating the energy of this powerful placement.

There is a complex T-square involving Mercury, Venus, the Nodal Axis, Juno, Pluto and Ceres all of which square Uranus which is in a tight conjunction with Athena. In addition, Saturn sextiles Uranus and Uranus is also within just 8 minutes of arc from an exact 135 degree aspect to his Sagittarius Ascendant. Uranus is also within orb of 135 degrees to musical Neptune. Uranus stationed direct 2.1 days before Elvis was born.

Tom Parker (who was not a Colonel) has a cardinal grand cross in his chart that plugs into Elvis's map, in particular to his Sun and Mercury, and by extension Elvis's own cardinal T-square.

Cardinal signs want to take the reins and make their own decisions and commitments. When there is a cardinal conflict, it is often about who is the leader, and who makes the decisions. In this case it seems that Parker was the one in control and this was to the detriment of the creative and talented Elvis Presley who died of heart failure at the age of 42, just after his Uranus opposition.

In August 1977 when he died, transiting Neptune was at 13SG crossing his Ascendant and squaring his natal Neptune. His health had gone downhill over several years due to his addiction to a range of drugs. A cocktail of drugs were routinely administered to keep him going at a relentless pace to keep up with the tour schedule organised by his manager, Parker.

The official cause of Elvis's death was heart failure, but that was probably brought about by the toxic levels of drugs he was taking, plus his poor diet and weight gain. The unfortunate early demise of Elvis Presley was largely due to Parker's influence. Parker's deceptive Neptune opposes Elvis's Sun and Mercury.

Libra a new Moon

g

Here in the southern skies and confidence.

the flowering of spring is in the air. This New Moon is just a few days after the Equinox.

With the warmer weather comes a uptick in energy. This is bolstered by giant Jupiter which is making its closest approach to the Earth at this New Moon, elevating enthusiasm

With Jupiter so prominent, and located in fiery Aries, this is likely to deliver a call to adventure. This stimulates impulsiveness and promotes risk taking of all kinds.

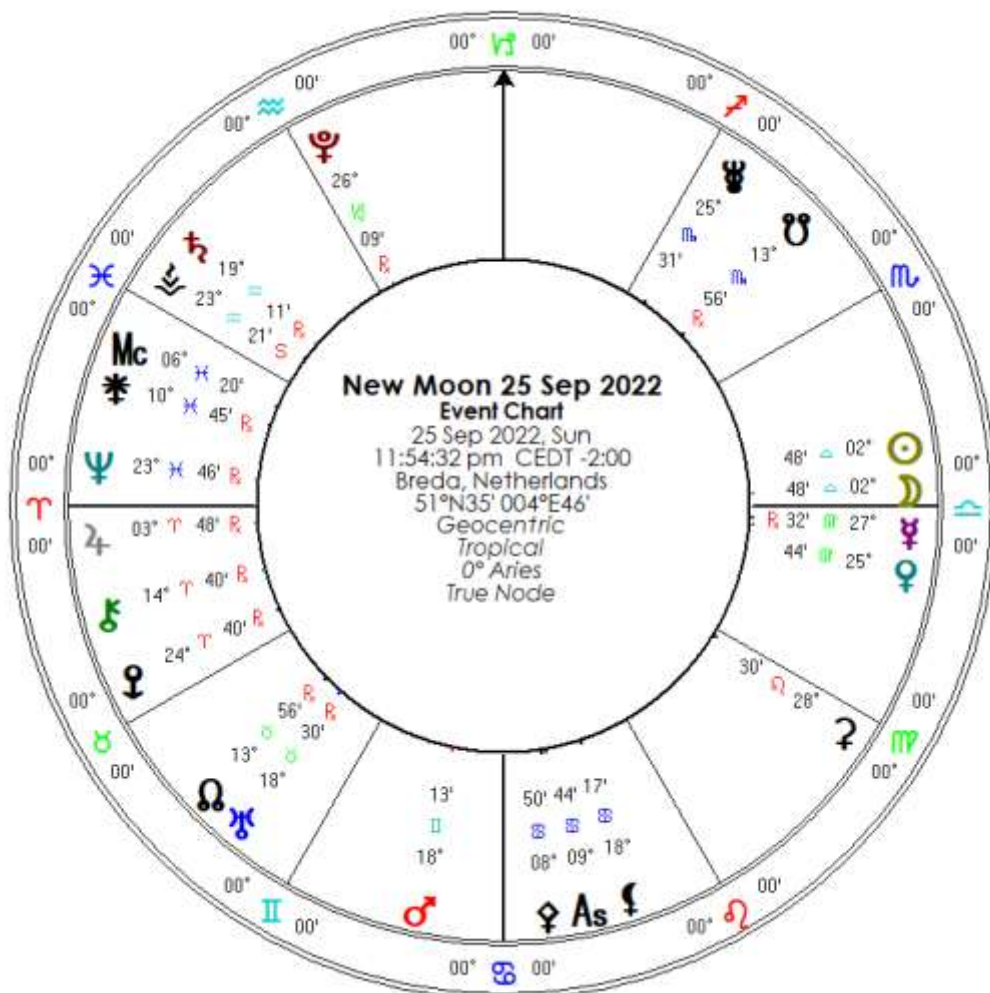

Jupiter in Aries is exuberant and is urging us to take action. Meanwhile, Mercury is retrograde in its own sign Virgo, pressing us to slow down and review our situation. Mercury widely opposes Jupiter, out of sign, which may result in some disruption to schedules or indecision.

The other point to note in this chart is that Vesta is at a virtual standstill, so passions are running high. The capacity to focus is enhanced but this can become overblown with Vesta leading to tunnel vision and obsessive behaviour.

The big picture and the details seem to be vying for an equal share of our attention. Likewise, there are choices to be made about how much risk is involved and whether we should act quickly, or focus on specifics and check the fine print before taking action.

Libra is all about finding balance.

How should we interpret motionless planets? What kinds of challenges and opportunities do they symbolise?

Packed with a host of fascinating case histories of well-known people and events, The Test of Time documents the phenomenon of stationary planets, including a range of dwarf planets and asteroids.

This book details my research into the 32-year cycle of Venus and Mars.

The symbolic connection between the celestial lovers is mirrored by their interaction as metals copper (Venus) and iron (Mars). This passionate exchange creates life on this planet and has immense impact across social settings and generations.

EQUINOX

At this Libra Equinox, Mercury joins the Sun at 0 degrees of Libra. Mercury is in the middle of its retrograde cycle, at inferior conjunction and is lined up with not just the Sun and the Earth, but also with Jupiter. This suggests this is a time for decision making, but like the New Moon that follows two days later, it calls for careful assessment. There is some uncertainty about which path to take.

The only planets that are moving in direct motion at this Equinox are Venus and Mars along with a few asteroids and dwarf planet Ceres. But Venus and Mars are involved in a mutable square which suggests the potential for misunderstandings and differences of opinion.

Communication is the domain of Mercury and with Mercury retrograde and at inferior conjunction, there may be extra intensity and debate at this Equinox that could extend over the coming three months.

Both Venus and Mars are in mutable signs ruled by Mercury, and with Mercury located at 0 Libra with the Sun, there is the need for compromise and consensus, however Libra can be indecisive at times and since Mercury is retrograde, it would be a good idea not to jump the gun by rushing to a conclusions.
