Leo FULL MOON

The Sun in Aquarius and the Moon in Leo are both squaring Uranus which sits in the middle of Taurus.

Fixed squares are known for their intensity and they often bring matters to a head, acting as a trigger for change.

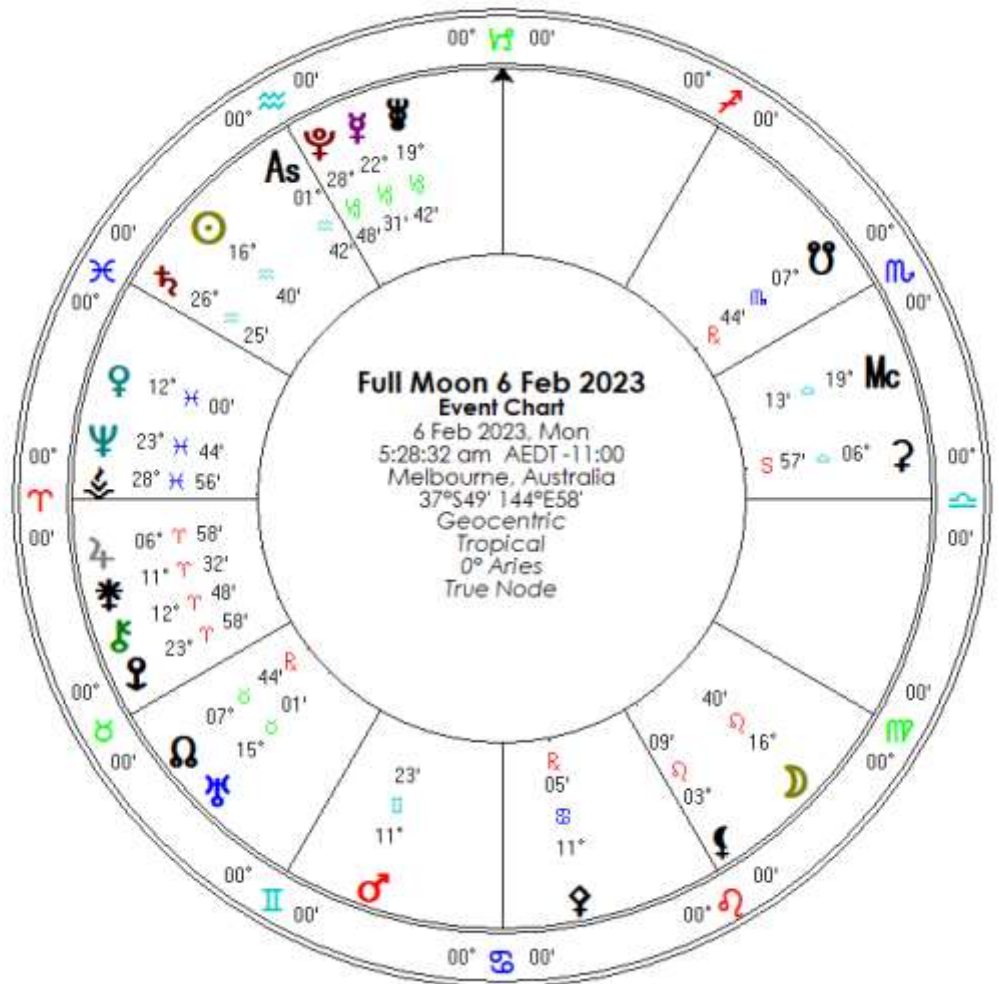

endure the pressure and stay the course we may have to yield to forces beyond our control.

Venus, the ruler of Taurus, is herself involved in a tight mutable square with Mars, suggesting that change is indeed imminent.

Venus-Mars squares are highly creative aspects and provide us with options. To break any stalemates that accompany this entrenched Leo Full Moon, it will be necessary to make sweeping changes. These changes may seem sudden or out of character, or involve a completely new approach. Try to keep your sense of humour intact and you will emerge from this Full Moon with a fresh perspective and potentially a whole new set of life skills.

Fixed energy is passionate, determined and focused and the middle of fixed signs is the most intense part of the zodiac. 45 degrees from the solstice and equinox points, it's unyielding and dramatic. Fixed T-squares often present us with a choice of whether to continue along the same path, or opt to let go and change tack. We can't get any more intense, and if we can't

CHARTS IN THE NEWS

PRINCE HARRY

It's fair to say that Prince Harry has experienced significant wounds. The death of his mother and the dysfunction within the British Royal Family, in particular the exploitation at the hands of the British Press, have led him to separate from his family in the UK and move to the US with his wife Meghan and their children. The recent release of his book Spare, and related media interviews have given voice to his wounds and exposed a raft of issues within the institution of the British Monarchy.

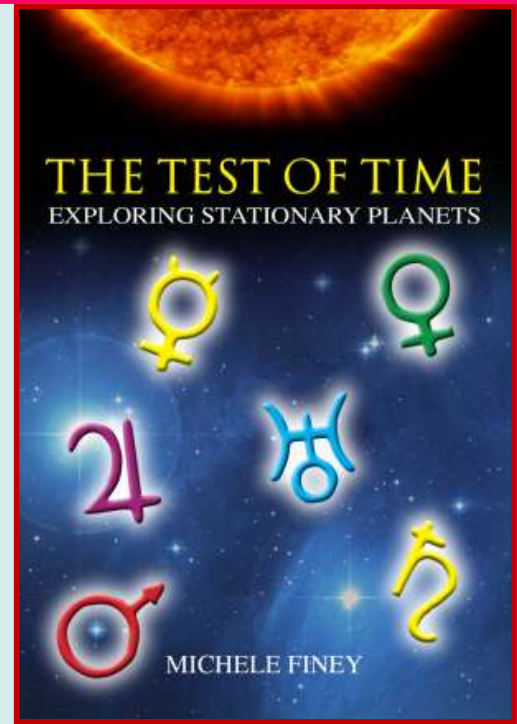

Harry has a number of stationary planets in his birth chart, including wounded-healer Chiron at 08GE32. Significantly, Chiron has been taking a powerful hit from stationary Mars, which stationed exactly the very week that his book was released.

Mars in Gemini can create a war (Mars) of words (Gemini) which is a very literal expression of this symbolism. Harry has been speaking out about his wounds in order to heal. This recent transit of Mars has also opposed his natal Uranus/Mars. Some say he's gone too far.

Harry also has stationary Ceres in his birth chart, (as has his brother William) consistent with the fact that their mother Princess Diana was a larger than life presence in their life.

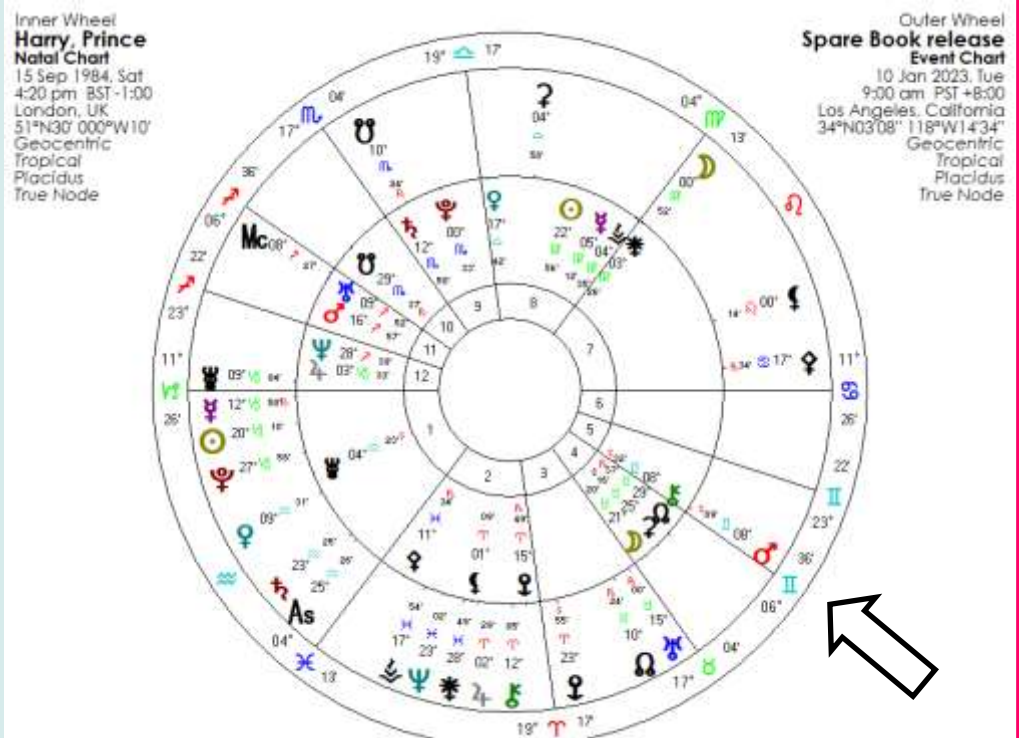

In Harry's chart stationary Ceres sits between his Moon and his North Node in Taurus, not far away from Chiron, showing the massive impact that his mother's death had on him at the age of 12.

Harry also has Hygiea stationary in his first house at 04AQ23. At the time of Diana's fatal car accident in 1997, transiting Uranus was 05AQ30, consistent with the shock and pain of that tragedy.

The current extended transit of Mars in Gemini is fuelling a war of words, but so far this is a one-sided communication that is yet to receive a response from the British Royal family.

Harry has exposed the dysfunction within the British monarchy as an institution, as well as the British tabloid press which was complicit in Diana's death and guilty of inflicting many of Harry and Meghan's wounds.

PISCES new moon

Pisces is an imaginative and creative sign and this New Moon is likely to stir our visions and dreams.

Venus and Neptune are together, also in this watery mutable sign, elevating our creativity still further.

Venus and Neptune arouse empathy and compassion and the tight sextile they form to Pluto and Hygeia suggests a deep-seated capacity for healing and forgiveness. Venus and Neptune are making an exact conjunction around Valentine's Day, stirring romantic gestures and expressions of love.

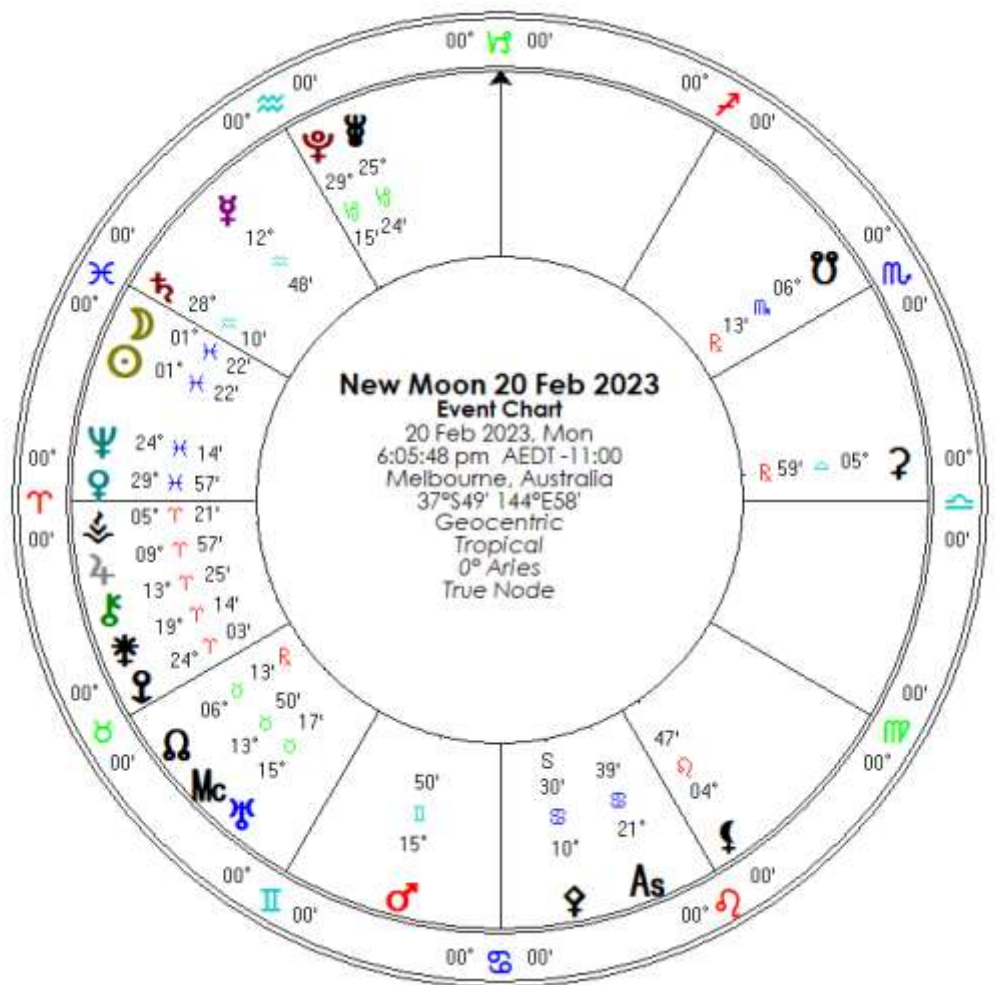

People who we have not been able to comprehend, are now more likely to be understood, or at least we can imagine how they must feel and we have more empathy for their situation.

Similarly, concepts and philosophies that have seemed beyond our understanding are also illuminated by this New Moon.

Fresh ideas and new skills are stimulated by the trine between Mercury and Mars. Chiron in Aries at their midpoint sextiles both and activates the cluster of planets in Aries. This is a good time to commence a course of learning or any new creative undertaking. Jupiter and Vesta, help focus our attention on our objectives.

Allow your imagination to guide you. Experiment with new creative ideas and test the waters.

Pr eview: PLUTO IN AQUARIUS

Hold on to your hats, your coats, your seats and anything else that you think might help to keep you grounded, and get ready for the ride of your life!

Next month on March 23, almost exactly at the time of the Equinox, Pluto will cross the threshold and start its shift into the futuristic sign Aquarius.

This transition will take a while to unfold. Pluto moves slowly, but the process of change is still rapid.

Advances in technology are quickly changing life as we know it. The pace of change is likely to accelerate dramatically.

Artificial Intelligence is one of the many developments we are witnessing that is advancing so quickly that it will soon overtake many aspects of daily life.

It's already affecting long established practices and having widespread impacts in a range of fields. AI will radically alter how we work, how we learn and teach, and will impact a host of fields, not just education and publishing.

It will take over a year for Pluto to fully transition from Capricorn into Aquarius, but this process will hopefully give us time to adjust to the many social changes we will soon face.

If you wish to delve more deeply into the history and symbolism of Pluto in Aquarius, you can read my detailed article at Astro.com.
