DECEMBER 2023

As 2023 comes to a close, and 2024 is about to commence, we reflect on the passage of time. Time is the dimension in which we exist. Astrologically, time is governed by Saturn, the lord of time the ruler of Capricorn, the sign of the December ingress.

As the December solstice approaches, we look back and review the past 12 months and begin to make plans for the coming year.

I want to wish you all a very joyous year end and a peaceful and rewarding 2024.

SAGITTARIUS NEW MOON

Mercury stations retrograde within hours of this New Moon. Typically, at this time of the year there are often postal delays and transport strikes which can cause Christmas chaos and throw travel plans up in the air.

With Mercury stationing and moving retrograde until early January, we can expect quite a few disruptions. Some of these delays and hiccups could be blessings in disguise. Mercury is making helpful sextile aspects to Venus and Athena in Scorpio and positive trine to Jupiter in Taurus. If we can exercise some patience, we can potentially reap the benefits. When Mercury slows down, it's a good time to take extra time and focus on details.

Note that Jupiter and Venus are in opposition. This is an indulgent aspect, especially with Jupiter in Taurus, so we may be tempted to eat and drink far too much, which often happens at this time of the year. This aspect could add to our waistlines, especially if our Xmas celebrations start early.

As far as the recent global conflicts are concerned, the intensity of the North Node-Eris conjunction is beginning to wane, but it has wrought strife in its wake. With Chiron closing in on them for the foreseeable future, it seems the global healing process will take a while to unfold.

This 32-page astrology calendar is suitable for those who are new to astrology, students of astrology and the professional astrologer.

It includes an introductory section on astrology basics that explains the meaning of planets and signs. An easy reference guide, it examines prevailing astrological conditions and suggests ways to take advantage of opportunities as they arise. For professional astrologers this calendar replaces the need to constantly refer to your ephemeris. It provides easy access to relevant astrological data for general daily use. It also includes planetary information that is not found in ephemerides, such as lunar perigees, Supermoons, key positions of Venus and more.

CANCER FULL MOON

In Mars ruled Aries, Chiron speaks to the all too apparent pain and suffering that war inflicts. It's been a year of turmoil and conflict in many regions. Chiron stations direct within a couple of hours of this Full Moon, highlighting the need for healing and compassion.

One of the ways Chiron heals our wounds is via the sharing of stories about our common suffering. Hopefully this Chiron station will foster a spirit of forgiveness and healing.

Mercury and Mars are in expressive Sagittarius and square Neptune, inviting us to communicate. This could help to open up a dialogue to resolve differences but this could result in additional confusion. Still, it does help to open the channels of communication. Mutable signs are good at multi-tasking, and they are adaptable and willing to compromise.

In some good news, Jupiter stations direct on New Year's Eve, ramping up a party atmosphere. This station holds the promise of better times ahead with abundance and good fortune in 2024.

This book details my research into the 32-year cycle of Venus and Mars.

The symbolic connection between the celestial lovers is mirrored by their interaction as metals copper (Venus) and iron (Mars). This passionate exchange creates life on this planet and has immense impact across social settings and generations.

SOLSTICE

Equinoxes and solstices initiate seasonal change that impacts not just the weather on Earth, but also sets the symbolic tone for the season ahead.

At this Capricorn Ingress, we see that the Moon is placed at zero Taurus making a pleasant trine to the Sun, with Saturn located around the midpoint in Pisces. This facilitates a harmonious exchange which should provide some peaceful energy, at least in the short term.

Vesta opposes the Sun, suggesting that home and hearth are in focus now. Vesta here, close to zero Cancer, suggests matters of home and family will be a high priority. End of year gatherings will take on extra special significance. By placing the Earth into this chart next to Vesta, it too honours home and family and our immediate environment.

The Moon and Jupiter are closely aligned which provides some beautiful viewing in the evening skies. Venus and Uranus oppose one another which will invite a happy surprise or two.

This chart highlights the importance of home and family, healing, gratitude and forgiveness and Jupiter's station on New Year's Eve promises a positive outlook as we move into 2024.

Wishing you peace and prosperity.
