

INSIGHT

MARCH 2024

THIS MONTH...

- 2024 CALENDAR
- PISCES NEW SUPERMOON
- LIBRA LUNAR ECLIPSE
- EQUINOX

I'm sending March INsight early, as I will be unavailable later this week. This month we have a New Supermoon in Pisces, a Libra Lunar eclipse and of course the Equinox.

Jupiter and Uranus are converging towards an exciting conjunction which will happen in April, and Chiron is a major feature then too.

Meanwhile, I want to apologise for a typo in the 2024 calendar, which I have just been made aware of. In November 2024 it says the Moon enters Virgo at 10.00 on 22nd, but it should say the 23rd. Please note on your copy. Sorry about this boo-boo. We do check the data thoroughly, but sometimes mistakes creep through.

PISCES NEW MOON

For the past 12 or so years, nebulous Neptune has been swimming in Piscean waters. One of the negative manifestations of this cycle has been a blurring of reality with fake news, lies and misinformation spreading exponentially across planet Earth. We still have about 12 month of this strange cycle, but its energy is waning.

This Pisces New Moon sees the Sun and Moon close to the midpoint of Neptune and Saturn which are converging towards a conjunction. This will happen at the start of Aries, which will hopefully bring about a more honest and forthright theme, but we'll have to wait and see.

At this New Moon there is a sextile to Uranus promising an uptick in positive and creative energy. Note however that Mars squares Uranus and is semi-sextile the Sun and Moon, so careful handling is required to avoid upsets and potential accidents when breaking new ground and trying something new.

Fixed squares like this Mars-Uranus aspect can evoke a sudden surge in unpredictable energy and with Mars in Aquarius, which has an affinity with Uranus itself, rushing and haste can result in break-ages, stress and elevated blood pressure. Try to make time for some relaxing Piscean meditation or calming water experiences.

This 32-page astrology calendar is suitable for those who are new to astrology, students of astrology and the professional astrologer.

It includes an introductory section on astrology basics that explains the meaning of planets and signs. An easy reference guide, it examines prevailing astrological conditions and suggests ways to take advantage of opportunities as they arise. For professional astrologers this calendar replaces the need to constantly refer to your ephemeris. It provides easy access to relevant astrological data for general daily use. It also includes planetary information that is not found in ephemerides, such as lunar perigees, Supermoons, key positions of Venus and more.

LIBRA FULL MOON - ECLIPSE

This Full Moon is a penumbral lunar eclipse, and it's visible from the eastern half of Australia. But as it's a penumbral eclipse, the Moon will just appear to be a bit fainter than usual.

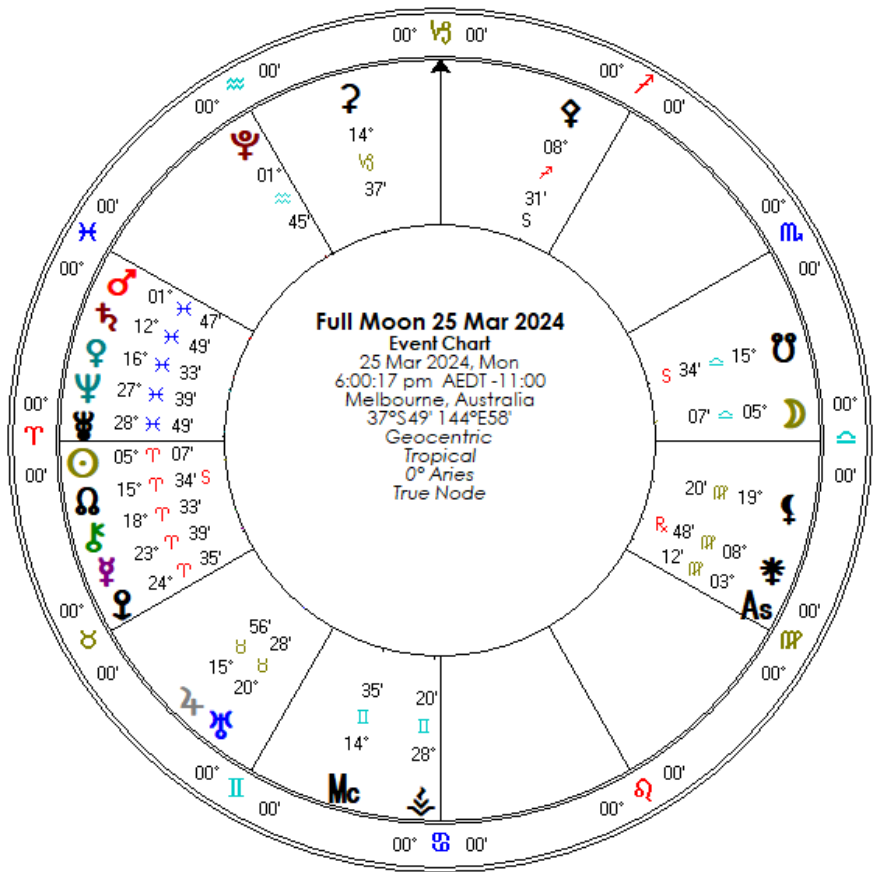

throughs. This interpretation is also supported by the imminent conjunction of Jupiter and Uranus which is exact next month.

nor aspects, but I do not hold this view. Given this is an especially tight orb of only two minutes of arc, it foreshadows the potential for confrontation between neighbours, be they of the personal, residential or in the political sphere. We may get caught up in disputes and have no choice but to confront a situation we would rather avoid.

There is a very tight semi-sextile between Mars and Pluto, an uncomfortable aspect that can force us to confront issues we would rather not have to face or manage. Semi-sextiles are considered by some astrologers to be mi-

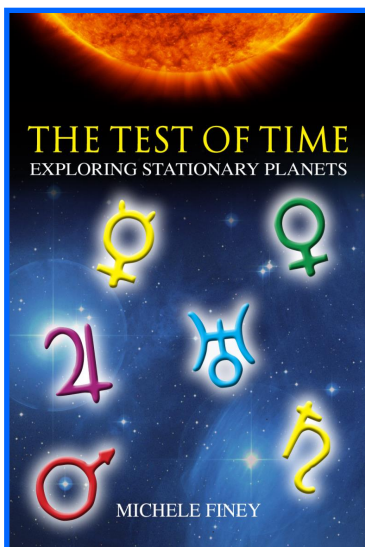

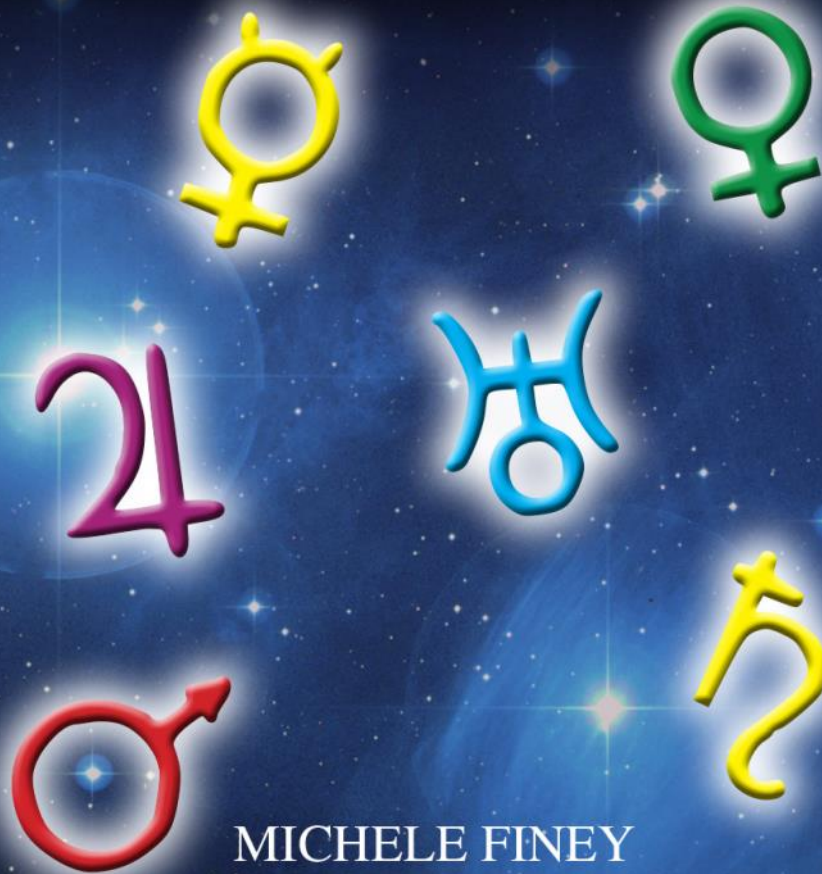

The most striking thing about this chart is the cluster of planets in Pisces and Aries. Everything is in direct motion, with the exception of Juno which is retrograde and opposing Mars-Saturn, and Athena which is stationary and squaring Juno and Mars-Saturn.

These mutable squares suggests sudden movement or break-

This book details my research into the 32-year cycle of Venus and Mars.

The symbolic connection between the celestial lovers is mirrored by their interaction as metals copper (Venus) and iron (Mars). This passionate exchange creates life on this planet and has immense impact across social settings and generations.

EQUINOX

Mars rules Aries, so to understand how this equinox will play out over coming months, let's look at Mars and its aspects.

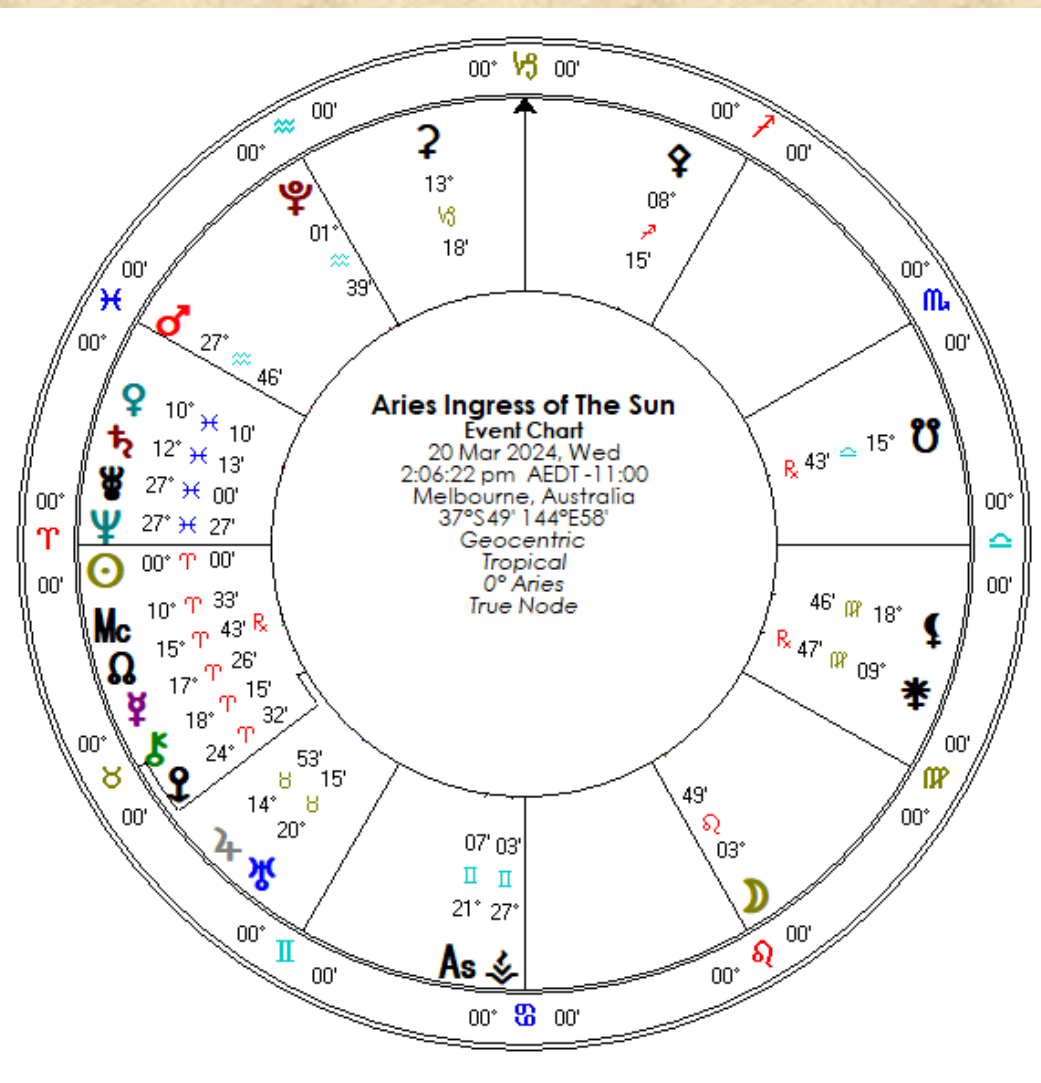

Action focused Mars at 27AQ46 is attempting to educate Neptune about being honest and direct. But Mars can also learn something from Neptune, who understands what's just around the corner.

Mars is trine Vesta in Gemini, who is focused on getting the details and communication correct, so this equinox is helpful for editing, putting together proposals, and making sure that everything is measured exactly.

Juno and Venus-Saturn are in opposition, with Athena squaring them both. This elevates tension between different aspects of the feminine, and the many roles that women take on. With independent Vesta squaring Neptune and Hygeia, there is no easy solution. Women wear many hats. We take on a variety of different roles and responsibilities, sometimes simultaneously, which is why we are good at multi-tasking. But sometimes our own needs get lost in the process as we juggle the many demands of life, work, relationships and parenting.

Ultimately Venus-Saturn asks us to set some clear boundaries and rules. Saturn-Venus helps us to draw a line between what we will and won't do. It helps us to say no, and mean it. It guides us to value and respect ourselves and prioritise when making decisions. Mutual respect for others and their different skills, perspectives, priorities and values can go a long way to mitigate tension.
